The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, February 7. 1723.

Boſton, December 17.

The Speech of his Excellency Sir William Keith, Bart. Governour of the Province of Penſilvania, and the Counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex upon Delaware.

To the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Counties of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, October 22, 1722.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

AS my Treaty with the Indians at Albany, which has been lately publiſhed, gives you an Opportunity to judge of the Importance of that Service, ſo it likewiſe gives me Occaſion to acquaint you, That I was in the Management and Conduct of that Buſineſs very faithfully aſſiſted by the Ability and indefatigable Application of your preſent Speaker, who at my Requeſt readily undertook the Fatigue of that Journey, to take Care of, and repreſent the Intereſt of theſe Counties at a Treaty which has rendered the whole People of this Government much more conſiderable in the Eſteem and Hearts of the Indians, than ever they were at any time before.

It having pleaſed God therefore to crown my Endeavours in the Publick Service, even with unexpected Succeſs, it will, I doubt not, occur to the Juſtice of your Thoughts, that ſome reaſonable Care ought to be taken by the People Repreſentatives, ſo to expreſs their great Satisfaction with a Service of this Kind, that, inſtead of ſuffering the Officers therein employed to be oppreſſed with the Burthen of the whole Charge and Expence, they be rather amply rewarded, in ſuch a publick and handſome Manner, as will not only encourage them in the Proſecution of their Duty, but others after them to follow their good Examples.

It was indeed in my Thoughts, to have called the laſt Aſſembly together before I went to Albany, in order to have made ſome Proviſion for the Expence of that Journey; but when I conſidered the Inconveniencies that would have attended their coming from the own Homes at that buſy Seaſon of the Year, and eſpecially when I reflected on the happy Confidence and perfect good Underſtanding that was laſt Year re-eſtabliſhed between me and the People, and finding Col. French as ready as myſelf to rely upon the Juſtice and Gratitude of this Aſſembly, rather than put the Country at that Time to the Trouble and Charge of calling the Repreſentatives together, I took thoſe Reſolutions which have moſt happily ſucceeded hitherto, and which, I hope, have given you all the Satisfaction and Content you can deſire.

Gentlemen,

It only remains with me to aſſure you, That I am come here, at this Time, with a Heart entirely diſpoſed to grant every Thing you can aſk of me for the Happineſs and Service of your Country, and to aſſiſt you therein to the utmoſt of my Power.

The Addreſs of the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of Newcaſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, Counties upon Delaware, in Aſſembly met, this 24th Day of October 1722. To his Excellency Sir William Keith, Bart. Governour of the ſaid Counties, &c. in Anſwer to his Speech of the 22d Inſtant.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

IT is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, that we unanimouſly embrace this Opportunity, in our publick Station, to congratulate your Excellency's Return from a long and tedious Journey, which, for the publick Welfare, and Peace of thoſe who are ſo happy to be under your juſt and mild Adminiſtration, you have lately undertaken, and ſo happily finiſhed and accompliſhed. Your unwearied Application for our Good, and the happy Conſequences and Effects of your wiſe and prudent Managements, beſpeak and require in every Circumſtance, our higheſt Gratitude.

We are extreamly well pleaſed to hear, that Colonel John French, our preſent Speaker, hath in the late Treaty ſo behaved himſelf as to gain your Excellency's Approbation. Thoſe great Abilities and undefatigable Diligence he hath made uſe of upon many publick Occaſions, hath very much endeared him to the People of this Government; and we do not know any Perſon amongſt us whoſe Intereſt we ſhould be more deſirous to promote than his: But as our preſent Circumſtances prevent us from anſwering our Inclinations, and as the Affair of the Treaty was more immediately the Buſineſs of Penſilvania, ſo we can only heartily recommend his Merit to your Excellency.

We have, according to our Ability, voted your Excellency an honourable Support, and in Teſtimony of our Gratitude for thoſe eminent Services, and your tender Care over us, we have exerted ourſelves to make an Addition on this Occaſion thereto: For as your Excellency hath always been deſirous and ready to grant every thing we ſhould aſk of you for our own Good, ſo we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves ſhould we omit any Opportunity of rendring our higheſt Gratitude, or neglect our utmoſt Endeavour to keep up that perfect good Underſtanding that was the laſt Year ſo entirely eſtabliſhed between your Excellency and the People.

Signed by Order of the Houſe,

John French, Speaker.

London, February 7.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Vienna, Jan. 27. The Empreſs's Journey for Carelsbad continues fixed to the 12th of May, and the Emperour's to Prague in the Month of June.
